

Wilfred
Owen
IN DUNSDEN

1918-2018

Four talks to mark 100 years since the end of World War 1

A FASCINATING SERIES OF ILLUSTRATED TALKS
7.30PM AT DUNSDEN VILLAGE HALL RG4 9QG

£4 ON THE DOOR: WWW.OWENINDUNSDEN.ORG

Prof. Suzanna Rose - Tuesday 10 July

From Shellshock to Post-traumatic Stress Disorder - responses to traumatic events over the centuries, including WWI shellshock

Inderpal Dhanjal - Tuesday 11 September

Indian Soldiers in the Great War - The astonishing story of over 1.5 million Indian service personnel that served from 1914-18

Robin Sanderson & Richard Crompton - Tues 9 October

Tunnelling for victory in WW1 - Descendants of WW1 tunnellers tell the remarkable story of their relatives' contribution to the British war effort

Speaker TBA - Tuesday 27 November

The Society of Friends and pacifism in WW1 - Quakers in WW1, and their response to conflict today.

Talks will be followed by questions and refreshments

The Dunsden Owen Association exists to commemorate two years Wilfred Owen spent in the Oxfordshire parish

